

Do not weaken our "no-call" law. There is no reason why we should have people calling us at home on our personal time. My family and I don't want to be bothered with any telemarketing calls-period. That's my time, my phone, my space--leave it alone. It has been great not having these calls the past couple years.